Don't miss this special opportunity to learn from our very own world renowned Cassandra! Cassandra has been a successful Oriental dance performer and teacher for over 40 years. She travels the world teaching, performing, and gathering both knowledge and kudos from Masters in this form of dance. She would LOVE to SHARE her wisdom and wealth of information with you in her Performance Skills class!

All intermediate level to professional students who want to perform in Arab Dance-related styles will work toward building a short performance to be presented to your fellow students during the last class. Cassandra helps you to prepare for and perfect your performances for any situation, then provides you with individual, personalized feedback about your performance.

Subjects include, in no particular order:

- Improvisation vs. choreography
- Stage presence – capture an audience with your style, personality, and dance skill
- Choosing and using music
- Show structure, style presentation, and tailoring shows to audiences
- The “Business” of dance
- Costuming and “good grooming”
- Discovering and enhancing your strengths

Dress for dance and bring a notebook.
